

Regarding the potential expansion of the broadcast service known as LPFM, please DO NOT allow translator service that provides KLOVE radio to Tucson to be replaced. The Christian music provided by KLOVE allows my family access to quality radio without bad language and lyrics or suggestive content, and promotes family values and morality. There is no other Christian music station in Tucson, so the loss of KLOVE would be truly a hardship to my family.